

Maurice Sartre: The Middle East under Rome. Translated by Catherine Porter and Elizabeth Rawlings with Jeannine Routier-Pucci, Cambridge, Mass. / London: Harvard University Press 2005, XV + 665 S., ISBN 0-674-01683-1, GBP 25.95.

Preface to the English-Language Edition xi

Acknowledgments xiii

Translators' Note xv

	Introduction	I
1	The Hellenistic Legacy	5
	The Creation of New States 12
	Syria between Parthians, Romans, and Armenians 25
2	The End of Seleucid Syria and the First Roman Rule (69-31 B.C.E.)	31
	The Beginnings of Roman Intervention 32
	Pompey and Syria 37
	Syria at the Time of the Roman Civil War 44
3	From Augustus to Trajan: Creating a Province	54
	The Provincia and Its Governors 55
	The Defenses of Imperial Syria in the First Century 60
	The Client States in the First Century C.E. 70
4	The Crises in Judaea from Herod to Bar Kokhba	88
	Herod the Great 89
	Herod's Heirs 93
	The Era of Prefects and Procurators 103
	The Revolt of 66-70 and Its Consequences 117
	From the Fall of the Temple to Bar Kokhba 127
5	From Trajan to the Severi: Conquests and Reorganizations	132
	New Provinces, New Divisions 133
	Defense of the Country and Roman Campaigns 136
6	Civic Life and Urban Development during the Early Empire	151
	The Spread of the Polis and the Creation of Colonies 152
	The Structure and Organization of Municipal Life 156
	City Profiles 188

7	Rural Life in the Early Empire	206
	Land Tenure and Land Use 207
	Agricultural Practices and Production 217
	Villages and Village Communities 224
	Nomads 233
8	The Urban Economy in Roman Syria	240
	Artisans 241
	Money and Customs Duties 249
	Roads and Ports 258
	Local and Foreign Trade 260
9	Hellenization and Indigenous Cultures	274
	Syrian Hellenism 275
	Indigenous Cultures 291
10	Pagans, Jews, and Christians in Roman Syria in the Second and Third Centuries	297
	Gods and Pagan Sanctuaries 299
	Rabbinical Judaism 319
	The Beginnings of Christianization 335
11	A Time of Trials	343
	Edessa, Hatra, and Dura-Europos 344
	Palmyra 350 Phylarchs and Nomad Chiefs 358
	Conclusion	364
	Abbreviations 371
	Notes 375
	Works Cited 557
	Index 649	